

THE COVER LETTER

1. What is the primary purpose of a cover letter?

- A. To repeat the CV
- B. To introduce the candidate and persuade the employer
- C. To summarize educational qualifications only
- D. To request salary details

Answer: B

2. Which of the following is the first step in writing a cover letter?

- A. Closing formally
- B. Selecting content
- C. Gaining attention in the opening
- D. Mentioning salary

Answer: C

3. The persuasive cover letter focuses mainly on:

- A. Creativity
- B. Persuasion and convincing tone
- C. Salary negotiation
- D. Short messaging

Answer: B

4. Which type of cover letter is written in response to a job advertisement?

- A. Abstract
- B. Solicited
- C. Unsolicited
- D. Creative

Answer: B

5. “Does your interest in employing an accountant...” is an example of which part of the cover letter?

- A. Body
- B. Closing
- C. Opening
- D. Enclosure note

Answer: C

6. A cover letter body usually focuses on:

- A. Requesting higher salary
- B. Showing relevant experience and skills
- C. Listing friends

D. Writing personal stories

Answer: B

7. Human relations in business can be strengthened through:

A. Ignoring team members

B. Participation in organizations

C. Avoiding extracurricular activities

D. Staying silent

Answer: B

8. A strong closing paragraph in a cover letter must include:

A. A request for meeting/interview

B. Personal hobbies

C. A complaint

D. Irrelevant statistics

Answer: A

9. While writing a cover letter email, one should:

A. Use long paragraphs

B. Keep it short

C. Add many attachments

D. Avoid professionalism

Answer: B

10. A CV differs from a resume mainly in:

A. Length and detail

B. Signature requirement

C. Salary mention

D. Use of photographs only

Answer: A

11. Group Discussions are conducted primarily to test:

A. Height and weight

B. Communication and analytical skills

C. Memory power

D. Financial status

Answer: B

12. Number of typical participants in a GD group:

A. 2–3

B. 4–6

C. 8–10

D. 20–30

Answer: C

13. Which quality is essential in GD leadership?

- A. Interrupting others
- B. Giving direction
- C. Speaking too fast
- D. Being aggressive

Answer: B

14. Analytical ability in GDs includes:

- A. Avoiding examples
- B. Logical reasoning
- C. Speaking loudly
- D. Memorizing definitions

Answer: B

15. "Keep It Short & Simple" refers to:

- A. KISS rule
- B. GD elimination rule
- C. CV restructuring rule
- D. Cultural rule

Answer: A

16. One should NOT do the following in a GD:

- A. Speak clearly
- B. Listen to others
- C. Shout or dominate
- D. Substantiate points

Answer: C

17. A good GD participant should maintain:

- A. Eye contact
- B. Constant arguments
- C. Silence throughout
- D. Excessive gestures

Answer: A

18. Which is a good way to initiate a GD?

- A. Shouting
- B. Using quotes or definitions
- C. Interrupting others
- D. Discussing unrelated stories

Answer: B

19. In body posture for GDs, the hands should be:

- A. Waving constantly
- B. On the lap
- C. In the air
- D. Hidden

Answer: B

20. Why are GDs conducted?

- A. To check handwriting
- B. To judge personality and communication
- C. To test running ability
- D. To check CV quality

Answer: B

21. Which is a factual GD topic?

- A. A is an alphabet
- B. Reservations should be removed
- C. Education policy of India
- D. Twinkle Twinkle little star

Answer: C

22. Which is an abstract GD topic?

- A. Tourism in India
- B. Inflation
- C. A is an alphabet
- D. Women make better managers

Answer: C

23. A GD participant should avoid:

- A. Gestures and table-thumping
- B. Politeness
- C. Listening
- D. Clarity

Answer: A

24. Which skill is evaluated in GDs?

- A. Running speed
- B. Interpersonal skills
- C. Painting skills
- D. Programming speed

Answer: B

25. Flexibility in GD means:

- A. Accepting other viewpoints when logical
- B. Always disagreeing
- C. Avoiding participation
- D. Speaking aggressively

Answer: A

26. A candidate should speak:

- A. Too fast
- B. Clearly
- C. Irrelevantly
- D. Aggressively

Answer: B

27. One should conclude in GDs:

- A. Periodically, summarizing important points
- B. Not at all
- C. Only at the start
- D. Only if angry

Answer: A

28. Group Discussions help in:

- A. Improving handwriting
- B. Critical thinking and decision making
- C. Physical fitness
- D. Memorizing data

Answer: B

29. A CV should include:

- A. Clear sections and accurate information
- B. Unverified achievements
- C. Long stories
- D. Irrelevant jokes

Answer: A

30. The best attitude in GD is:

- A. Dominance
- B. Positivity and assertiveness
- C. Aggression
- D. Silence

Answer: B

WEEK 5 – NPTEL ASSIGNMENT

Which component of the "Clarity of Thought" quality, as assessed in Group Discussions, requires the participant to disregard extraneous or secondary information?

- a) Abandonment of Peripherals
- b) Distillation of Essentials
- c) Presentation of Details
- d) Logical Argumentation

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers: (a)

What is the significance of the prescribed position of keeping one's legs stationed on the ground, with the right and left leg intertwined beneath the chair?

- a) It signifies an open-minded and flexible approach to the topic.
- b) It prevents the participant from using distracting hand gestures.
- c) It indicates a readiness to take initiative and assume leadership.
- d) It physically reinforces the participant's "firmly positioned" stance.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

d)

Beyond improving listening skills and confidence, a core function of a Group Discussion is to enhance a participant's ability to engage with and process information, specifically through which process?

- a) Improving one's ability to be assertive, not dominating.
- b) Increasing one's flexibility in approach to the discussion topic.
- c) Improving one's ability to think critically about the subject.
- d) Helping the group to ensure error-free presentations of details.

- a)

- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

c)

Which of the following initiation techniques is specifically classified as making a dramatic introductory statement to capture the group's attention at the outset of a GD?

- a) Definition
- b) Shock statement
- c) Short story/Anecdote
- d) General statement

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

b)

Which non-verbal behavior is explicitly cautioned against in a GD because it can be interpreted by moderators and participants as an aggressive display?

- a) Gestures like finger pointing and table thumping.
- b) Flailing hands excessively while making a point.
- c) Adopting a casual, non-formal dress code.
- d) Speaking with a high pitch.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

a)

When sitting in a GD, what does the body position of keeping hands on one's lap, with the right hand atop the left, specifically signify?

- a) A non-aggressive and collaborative posture.
- b) A relaxed yet attentive listening disposition.
- c) An indication that the participant is a logical person.
- d) A commitment to restricting excessive hand movement.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

c)

The 'KISS' principle, listed as a "DO" in the GD strategies, primarily instructs the participant to prioritize which aspect of their verbal contribution?

- a) Keep an Integrated Summary & Synthesis.
- b) Keep your Ideas Specific & Substantiated.
- c) Keep It Short & Simple.
- d) Keep Information Systematically Sorted.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

c)

A participant who has correctly grasped the Group Discussion topic is advised to initiate the discussion primarily because this action demonstrates which critical assessed skill?

- a) Leadership skills
- b) Analytical skills
- c) Conceptualizing skills
- d) Problem solving skills

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

a)

Which of the following example topics is explicitly used to illustrate a controversial type of Group Discussion?

- a) The education policy of India
- b) A is an alphabet
- c) Women make better managers
- d) Twinkle Twinkle little star

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

c)

Which type of GD topic often requires participants to use creativity and lateral thinking to interpret and discuss a seemingly non-obvious or metaphorical statement?

- a) Abstract Topics
- b) Factual Topics
- c) Controversial Topics
- d) Detailed Topics

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

a)

The Group Discussion process is stated to help a participant to understand a subject more deeply. This deeper understanding is a direct consequence of which other listed benefit?

- a) It improves your ability to be assertive, not dominating.
- b) It helps the group to fulfill the goal of the discussion.
- c) It improves your ability to think critically.
- d) It helps the group to solve the problem at hand.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

c)

The example topic "The education policy of India" falls under which specific classification of Group Discussion themes?

- a) Factual Topics
- b) Abstract Topics
- c) Controversial Topics
- d) Definitional Topics

a)

b)

c)

d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

a)

Which of the following example GD topics is categorized under the type of discussion that deals with real-world, current-day affairs and requires knowledge of data and facts?

- a) Reservations should be removed
- b) Tourism in India
- c) A is an alphabet
- d) Women make better managers

a)

b)

c)

d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

b)

To prevent a participant's points from appearing rushed or unclear, what specific strategic action is advised regarding the pace of delivery?

- a) Speak loudly.
- b) Deliberate & be slow in delivering your points.
- c) Make uneven contributions.
- d) Follow principles of non-verbal communication.

a)

b)

c)

d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

b)

One of the key behavioral "DOs" is to maintain even contributions. What is the primary reason for this rule?

- a) To ensure that the participant gets first chance to initiate the discussion.
- b) To exhibit leadership by directing the group's conversation.
- c) To prevent the participant from dominating the discussion.
- d) To prove the participant's knowledge.

a)

b)

c)

d)

Yes, the answer is correct.

Accepted Answers:

c)