

Part 1: The Fishbowl Discussion

1. How do employers view effective communication in today's workplace?

- A. As a secondary skill compared to technical expertise
- B. As critical to an individual's success
- C. As a skill only necessary for management
- D. As a trait that cannot be taught

Correct Answer: B

2. The term "fishbowl" discussion is derived from:

- A. The quiet nature of the participants
- B. The aquatic topics often discussed
- C. The physical format where active participants are surrounded by observers
- D. The limited time available for the discussion

Correct Answer: C

3. Who evaluates the dynamics of the group in a fishbowl activity?

- A. The instructor only
- B. The active participants themselves
- C. The surrounding observers
- D. External recruiters

Correct Answer: C

4. In a fishbowl, the focus of learning shifts from the teacher to:

- A. The textbook
- B. The students
- C. The evaluation forms
- D. The facilitator only

Correct Answer: B

5. What is the typical size of a fishbowl active group?

- A. 2 to 3 students
- B. 5 to 6 students
- C. 7 to 8 students
- D. 12 to 15 students

Correct Answer: C

6. Which topic is most appropriate for a professional fishbowl discussion?

- A. Theoretical Physics
- B. Ethical decision-making and corporate responsibility
- C. Personal hobbies and interests
- D. Basic arithmetic

Correct Answer: B

7. When should the list of 8–10 key questions be turned in?

- A. At the end of the semester
- B. The class session prior to the discussion
- C. Five minutes before the discussion starts
- D. During the follow-up session

Correct Answer: B

8. What does the instructor review before the discussions begin?

- A. Grading curves
- B. Behaviors that help or hinder group communication
- C. History of the university
- D. The student handbook

Correct Answer: B

9. How are students scored during the fishbowl?

- A. Based on a final written exam
- B. Through evaluation forms tracking positive and negative behaviors
- C. Based on their attendance record
- D. They are not scored to reduce anxiety

Correct Answer: B

10. What is the typical duration of a fishbowl discussion?

- A. 5 to 10 minutes
- B. 20 to 25 minutes
- C. 45 to 60 minutes
- D. 2 hours

Correct Answer: B

11. What is the primary role of the facilitator?

- A. To provide all the answers
- B. To introduce the topic and keep the dialogue moving
- C. To grade the observers
- D. To remain silent throughout the process

Correct Answer: B

12. How much time is allotted for a participant's final statement?

- A. 10 seconds
- B. 30 seconds
- C. 2 minutes
- D. 5 minutes

Correct Answer: B

13. What is the purpose of the instructor's follow-up conversation?

- A. To assign homework
- B. To reemphasize behaviors that help or hinder interactions
- C. To announce the winner of the debate
- D. To take attendance

Correct Answer: B

14. Students adept in interpersonal skills are statistically:

- A. Likely to work in isolation
- B. More apt to be hired and successful on the job
- C. Less likely to need research skills
- D. Unaffected in their career progression

Correct Answer: B

Part 2: Interviewing for Employment

15. How is an "interview" defined in professional communication?

- A. An informal chat
- B. Purposeful, planned, decision-making, person-to-person communication

C. A one-way interrogation

D. A random meeting

Correct Answer: B

16. Which interview type is designed specifically to collect data or opinions?

A. Appraisal interview

B. Exit interview

C. Information-gathering interview

D. Counseling interview

Correct Answer: C

17. What is the main goal of an Appraisal interview?

A. Selling a product

B. Evaluation purposes

C. Quitting a job

D. Networking

Correct Answer: B

18. An Exit interview is conducted to:

A. Hire a replacement

B. Determine why someone is leaving a position

C. Provide psychological therapy

D. Conduct a background check

Correct Answer: B

19. Which is a preliminary task for a hiring interview?

A. Signing insurance paperwork

B. Preparing the Cover Letter and Resume

C. Attending an office party

D. Calculating retirement benefits

Correct Answer: B

20. Which section is considered standard on a professional resume?

A. Favourite movies

B. Employment History

- C. Political affiliation
- D. Elementary school grades

Correct Answer: B

21. "Closed questions" are generally characterized by:

- A. Long, narrative answers
- B. Simple yes/no or brief factual responses
- C. Philosophical debates
- D. Silence

Correct Answer: B

22. An "Open question" offers the interviewee:

- A. No choice in how to answer
- B. Freedom regarding the choice and scope of an answer
- C. A set of multiple-choice options
- D. Only illegal topics

Correct Answer: B

23. A "Secondary question" is used to:

- A. Start the interview
- B. Follow up on a primary question for more detail
- C. End the interview abruptly
- D. Replace the resume

Correct Answer: B

24. In a "Stress interview," what occurs?

- A. The candidate is left in a dark room
- B. Multiple people fire questions at an interviewee
- C. The candidate is asked to lift weights
- D. There are no questions asked

Correct Answer: B

25. A "Behavioral interview" focuses on:

- A. Medical history
- B. Specific examples of past skills and actions

C. Acting out a play

D. Physical fitness

Correct Answer: B

26. Which body issued guidelines regarding illegal interview questions?

A. FBI

B. EEOC (Equal Employment Opportunity Commission)

C. NASA

D. The Department of Education

Correct Answer: B

27. Which topic is generally considered illegal to ask about in a US interview?

A. Technical certifications

B. Marital status

C. Previous job titles

D. Educational background

Correct Answer: B

28. If asked an illegal question, you should:

A. Walk out immediately

B. Respond diplomatically with only legally relevant information

C. Lie to the interviewer

D. File a lawsuit on the spot

Correct Answer: B

29. Impression management is the responsibility of:

A. Only the applicant

B. Only the interviewer

C. Both the applicant and the interviewer

D. Neither party

Correct Answer: C

30. According to the guidelines, the final step in the process is to:

A. Reject all offers

B. Chart your progress and consider the offer

C. Post the results on social media

D. Ignore the follow-up

Correct Answer: B

Week 06 : Assignment 06

What characteristic makes an interview distinct from a casual conversation, particularly in professional communication contexts?

- a) Its reliance on non-verbal cues for message transmission
- b) It is the most common type of purposeful, planned, decision-making, person-to-person communication.
- c) The necessity of a hierarchical structure between the participants
- d) Its focus on gathering subjective personal information

a)

b)

c)

d)

Accepted Answers:

b)

What is the primary objective of an Appraisal Interview in the workplace?

- a) It is designed for evaluation purposes.
- b) It is designed to determine why an employee is leaving a position.
- c) It is designed to provide guidance to an employee.
- d) It is designed to influence an employee's attitudes or behavior.

a)

b)

c)

d)

Accepted Answers:

a)

Which type of question is characterized by its highly structured nature, often allowing for only a simple 'yes' or 'no' response, or a few brief words?

- a) Open questions
- b) Primary questions
- c) Closed questions
- d) Secondary questions

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- c)

Which specialized interview type requires the job applicant to provide specific instances of their skills in past work contexts?

- a) Case interview
- b) Behavioural interview
- c) Stress interview
- d) Competency interview

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- b)

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) guidelines specifically protect interviewees from questions concerning which of the following demographic factors?

- a) Educational background
- b) Professional certifications
- c) Marital status
- d) Special skills and interests

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- c)

What is the explicit purpose of a Counseling interview?

- a) To provide guidance and support to the interviewee.
- b) To collect data, opinions, or general information for a specific project.
- c) To select the most suitable candidate for an open job position.
- d) To influence the interviewee's beliefs or future actions.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- a)

What is the core function of a Persuasive interview?

- a) To systematically gather expert information or data.
- b) To influence the attitudes or behaviour of the interviewee.
- c) To review and evaluate the performance of an employee.
- d) To determine the reasons for an employee's impending departure.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- b)

Which category of question offers the interviewee the most latitude and depth for their response?

- a) Secondary questions
- b) Primary questions
- c) Open questions
- d) Closed questions

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- c)

Which component is explicitly listed as one of the eight essential parts of a Resume?

- a) Letter of recommendation
- b) Expected salary range
- c) Family background
- d) Relevant professional certifications and affiliations

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- d)

What is the distinct relationship between primary and secondary questions in an interview?

- a) Primary questions focus on the core topic, while secondary questions introduce a new topic.
- b) Secondary questions are used to follow up and explore the areas introduced by primary questions.
- c) Both are highly structured and answerable with only a simple yes or no.
- d) Primary questions are closed, whereas secondary questions are open.

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- b)

How is technology specifically adding flexibility to current interviewing channels?

- a) By automating the drafting and sending of the Cover Letter and Resume
- b) By entirely replacing human interviewers with advanced AI systems
- c) By employers using computers to enhance and diversify channels
- d) By restricting job postings exclusively to online platforms

- a)
- b)
- c)
- d)

Accepted Answers:

- c)

If an interviewer poses an illegal question, what is the recommended diplomatic strategy?

- a) Answer truthfully but immediately state your intention to file a complaint afterward.
- b) Respond only with the information the interviewer could have legally sought from you.
- c) Terminate the interview immediately, citing the EEOC violation.
- d) Directly challenge the interviewer's professional ethics and legal knowledge.

a)

b)

c)

d)

Accepted Answers:

b)

The Stress interview is characterized by which specific dynamic?

- a) The interviewee must work through a complex business case presented by the employer.
- b) More than one person fires questions at an interviewee simultaneously.
- c) The interviewee is asked to demonstrate specific skills through scenario-based questioning.
- d) It involves the use of intentionally inappropriate or illegal questions to test composure.

a)

b)

c)

d)

Accepted Answers:

b)

What is the primary function of an Exit interview?

- a) To select the best candidate to fill the vacant position.
- b) To provide counselling and psychological support to the departing employee.
- c) To determine the reason why someone is leaving a position.
- d) To influence the employee's opinion of the organization favorably.

a)

b)

c)

d)

Accepted Answers:

c)

According to the objectives of the hiring interview, what role is simultaneously occupied by both the interviewer and the interviewee?

a) Ethical arbiter

b) Impression manager

c) Sole decision maker

d) Information seeker, information giver, and decision maker

a)

b)

c)

d)

Accepted Answers:

d)